Minutes Taken By:

Kimberly Castiglione, Legislative Secretary

(The meeting was called to order at 2:50 p.m.)

CHAIRMAN CARACAPPA:

This is the August 2nd meeting of Sports and Recreation. Thank you all for coming. Are there any people to speak on any issues? We'll go right to the agenda.

INTRODUCTORY RESOLUTIONS

PRIME

I.R. 1701-2000 Authorizing family generated food consumption at County ballpark. (Cooper)

Introductory Resolution 1701-2000 has been withdrawn as of this morning so that is not an issue at this point in time.

TABLED RESOLUTIONS

PRIME

I.R. 1652-2000 A Charter Law establishing the Division of Sports &
Recreation within the Department of Parks,
Recreation & Conservation. (County Executive)

The public hearing has been closed. There was some discussion in the last committee meeting, being Parks, where this bill is non-prime. It is prime in this committee, so the vote that comes out of this committee here on this issue will be binding.

LEGISLATOR FISHER:

Motion to approve.

CHAIRMAN CARACAPPA:

There is a motion to approve by Legislator Fisher. There is a second by myself. Any discussion? All in favor? Opposed? Abstain? The motion is approved. (Vote: 4/0/0/0). It will be on the floor come Tuesday.

Is there any other business to come before this body, this committee? Hearing none, seeing none, motion by Legislator Fields, second by myself, to adjourn. We are adjourned.

(The meeting was adjourned at 2:53 p.m.)
